Dear Mr. Dulles:

A few days ago, Mrs. Wohlthat and myself returned to our home in Kings Point from our trip to Europe after a stormy voyage on the M.S. "United States".

In our mail I have found your Christmas card for which I want to thank you. I should like to add our very best wishes for you and all the members of your family for the year 1959. This includes, naturally, your brother whom we admire for his extraordinary devotion to his office and for the strength of his character.

I expect to stay in New York until early April, and if I visit Washington, I shall find out whether I could call upon you.

With kindest personal regards,

Very sincerely yours,
